Dear Timothy Leary —

So good of you to notice my piece in the AHP bulletin — and to bring the issue of Coeducation Quarterly to my attention. I missed it ... but will probably want to draw upon it for some things I'm writing.

I hope life is treating you well after all the injustices of recent years. I very much concur in your 60s/70s interpretation and take heart that you haven't been embittered (as many would have been) by the abuse you've absorbed.
It's the cynicism of these years that hurts most ... and the teaching against truth of the cynical powers that be. It's good to have a bright word from you.

All the best — courage & good cheer

TEH Cosjak
